L-3 Cincinnati Electronics, supplier of infrared thermal imaging and space and military systems in Mason, has named Russ Walker as president.

Walker joins Cincinnati Electronics, a unit of L-3 Communications Corp., from AAI Textron Systems in Hunt Valley, Md., where he most recently served as vice president of engineering.

Walker has more than 30 years experience in the defense industry. Before joining AAI Textron in 2005, he worked for both Northrop Grumman and Lockheed Martin Corp.

At Cincinnati Electronics, which employs more than 600, he will report to Wes Motooka, president of L-3's integrated sensor systems sector.

"Russ Walker is a proven leader with the critical skills needed to sustain and grow our business," Motooka said.
