Milacron LLC's new CEO said the company will roll out a new business structure now that it has emerged from bankruptcy.

The move draws a line under nearly 125 years of history for Milacron Inc., which employed tens of thousands over the years.

Dennis Smith told the Business Courier that the new corporate entity will focus on operations; Milacron's corporate presence in Cincinnati will be de-emphasized.

Smith is a seasoned turnaround specialist who said he wants to "remove the politics" from decision-making and focus on customer needs.
